MISSING CHILD POLICY

St Joseph's College prides itself on the quality of the teaching and pastoral care provided to each of its pupils, from EYFS across to Sixth Form, including Boarding. The Governing body has ultimate responsibility for meeting all the College's regulatory requirements, which they delegate to the Principal, supported by the Senior Leadership team. In line with good practice and as part of the Governors' due diligence, the Board of Governors' reviews this policy annually.

St Joseph's College, as an aware employer, is committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of children and young people as its number one priority. Robust recruitment, selection and induction procedures operate throughout the College and extend to organisations and services linked on its behalf.

1. Introduction

The College is committed to safeguarding children and young people; the safety and well-being of our pupils is therefore, a priority at all times. This policy sets out the procedures which are in place to prevent a child going missing and the procedures for dealing in the event of a child going missing whilst at the College, including in the EYFS, Boarding and also on trips and visits.

2. Responsibilities

Staff

It is the responsibility of all staff to read this policy and to follow its guidelines and procedures. Staff must be ever vigilant and do everything possible at all times to safeguard and promote the safety and effective supervision of pupils, thereby minimising the risk of a child going missing.¹²

Parents

Parents must ensure that they provide correct and updated contact information on a timely basis. They must know and follow the recommended handover procedures at the start and end of the day, as well as the procedures for reporting their child's absence and collecting a child from College during the school day and at the end of trips, visits and matches. Parent must make contact with the College as a priority on the first morning of their child's absence.

Principal/SLT

The Principal and the SLT must liaise with the relevant agencies/authorities in the event of a child going missing, including the Police and the local safeguarding children partnership.

Governing Body

The Governors must be aware of the procedures in this policy and challenge/support the College in its review of this policy.

Students

Students must register as appropriate and on time. They must not leave the campus during the school day without the appropriate authorisation. They must attend lessons as per their timetable.

² NMS 15.6

MISSING CHILD POLICY

3. Procedures for ensuring the safety and effective supervision of students and thereby minimising the risk of a child going missing in the Senior School

Pupils are not allowed off site during the school day. If they need to leave the site, they must sign out with permission from their parent which is checked by Reception staff, or a parent present. If a child arrives after registration they must sign in at main Reception, or during COVID-19 altered working practice with their teacher, who must inform Reception via email immediately. Upper Sixth students can leave the site one lunchtime a week, as a privilege and then only with permission from the Head of Sixth Form. Boarders are not allowed back into the Boarding houses during the school day, unless ill and under supervision of Boarding staff.

(i) Start of the day

- Staff on duty
- AM registers taken
- College minibus shuttle available for pupils to travel from train station
- Late arrivals marked in at and by Reception
- First day response calls made to absentees

(ii) During lessons

- Registers taken in the Senior School and unexplained absences followed up
- Staff notified of any pupils absent, in the medical and therapy centre, or with a peripatetic teacher via a note on lesson register on SIMS
- Senior School back entrance gates are locked during College teaching time until 3.15pm. Prep School gates are shut at 9.30am and open at 3.15pm
- Advance warning of trips/events/activities are given through Staff Bulletin/Briefing/Portal Calendar
- Only the College Nurse or SLT can confirm that a student is ill and needs to go home
- Students who are ill will not be allowed to return home/travel alone

(iii) During break and lunchtimes

- Staff on duty

(iv) End of School day

- Staff on duty around the site, including bus duties
- Development Hour extra-curricular activities or a student going home straight after school are logged on SIMS, with Development Hour registers taken in clubs.
- Day pupils still on the premises after College buses leave will be supervised by the duty SLT person and will be taken to sit, socially distanced, in the Conference Room until a parent can collect them.

(v) Visits

- All trips and visits are approved by SLT and consent is sought and required from parents
- All trips and visits are risk assessed
- Risk assessments are approved by a qualified EVC
- Only competent, experienced staff are permitted to lead trips
- Staff / pupil ratios are in line with LA guidelines
- Parents briefed before residential risk trips e.g. ski trip and exchanges
- Trips always have a qualified first aider on them, where an EYFS trip a qualified paediatric first aider will be on the trip.

MISSING CHILD POLICY

- List of students' names are left at Reception in school/with the SLT contact and also taken to be used as registers on the trip

6. Procedures in the event of a child going missing in the Prep School, including EYFS³

Statement of intent

Our setting has the highest regard for the safety of the children in our care. Staff will always be extremely aware of the potential for children to go missing during sessions and will follow all relevant procedures to ensure the risks are minimised. Given the age of Prep School children, staff are very aware of the serious implications of a child of this age group going missing

Methods

Even when all precautions are properly observed, emergencies can still arise. To minimise the likelihood of a child going missing registers are taken each morning and afternoon, first day absence calls are made for all classes from Reception to Year 6, members of staff also undertake periodic head counts at key times, e.g., at the start of a games lesson. If for any reason a member of staff cannot account for a child's whereabouts during a session, the following procedure will be activated:

³ EYFS 3.73

MISSING CHILD POLICY

- The Teacher will immediately call the register to ensure that all other children are present.
- The member of staff in question will immediately inform both the Receptionist, Head (SLT) and Deputy Head of Prep School and the rest of the staff team that the child is missing and a thorough search of the entire premises and outdoor area will commence immediately. The Receptionist will radio the Grounds, Maintenance staff and Senior School Receptionist usually within 5 -10 minutes. The staff team will be careful not to create an atmosphere of panic and to ensure that the other children remain safe and are adequately supervised.
- If after 15 minutes of thorough searching the child is still missing, the Head or Deputy Head of Prep will inform the child's parent/carer.
- While waiting for the parent/carer to arrive, the Police will be contacted and no later than within 1 hour of the child going missing and searches for the child will continue. During this period, other members of staff will maintain as normal a routine as is possible for the rest of the children.
- The Head of Prep will be responsible for meeting the police and the missing child's parent/carer. The staff will co-ordinate any actions instructed by the police, and do all they can to comfort and reassure the parents/carers.
- Once the child has been located – all relevant stakeholders will need to be informed
- Once the incident is resolved, the Head of Prep and the staff team will review relevant policies and procedures and implement any necessary changes. These will be examined and ratified at the College's Health & Safety Committee.
- All incidents of children going missing from the setting will be recorded on the College's Accident/Incident Form, and in cases where either the police or children's services have been informed, ISI will also be informed, as soon as is practicable.

7. Procedures in the event of a child going missing in Boarding⁴

During the evening, or during the day at the weekend

- The Vice Principal Pastoral & Boarding will be informed immediately
- Signing in and out books will immediately be checked and all staff will confirm that no permission was given for the student to leave the premises
- An immediate search of all students' rooms, recreational, study and washing/toilet facilities and the areas surrounding the Boarding Houses and other appropriate locations (e.g. Sports Hall, wooded areas, fitness suite, Refs etc.) will be conducted.
- Staff and friends of the missing child will attempt to contact the child's mobile phone usually within the first 5-10 minutes
- A fire alarm will be sounded to confirm the missing child is not on site – all students will be made aware a child is missing to ensure that any student who has pertinent information comes forward usually within 20 – 30 minutes
- Adults and pupils will be asked calmly if they can recall when they last remember seeing the pupil
- At the same time, one or more adults will conduct an extensive search of the school grounds

⁴ NMS 15.6

- The Designated Safeguarding Lead will contact Children's Services within 24 hours
- A College Accident/Incident Form will be completed and in cases where either the police or social services have been informed, ISI will also be informed, as soon as is practicable.

8. Procedures in the event of a child going missing from a host/home stay family⁵

In the event of the above the host parent will immediately contact the on-call member of staff in Boarding. Contact will try to be immediately established with the child or the child's friends to establish their whereabouts. If this is unsuccessful the Principal or Vice Principal will be informed and parents and police contacted in line with the timings above.

9. Action to be followed by Staff once the child is found

- Talk to, take care of and, if necessary, comfort the child
- Speak to the other pupils to ensure they understand why they should not leave the premises/separate from a group on an outing
- The Head of the Prep/Senior School will speak to the parents to discuss events and give an account of the incident

⁵ NMS 20.6

MISSING CHILD POLICY

- The Principal will promise a full investigation (if appropriate involving the Local Safeguarding Partnership)
- Media queries should be referred to the Principal (after discussion with the Local Safeguarding Partnership if appropriate)
- The investigation should involve all concerned providing written statements
- The report should be detailed covering: time, place, numbers of staff and children, when the child was last seen, what appeared to have happened, the purpose of the outing, the length of time that the child was missing and how s/he appeared to have gone missing, as well as lessons for the future.
